

Guidance for Proof Submission
Note: Listed below are commonly used tax deduction, any proof other than listed can be added in respective deductions
TAX DEDUCTION SECTIONS	DEDUCTION HEAD	SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS REQUIRED FOR EACH DEDUCTIONS
Rent Receipt	HRA Deduction	Rent receipt mentioning the period with revenue stamp & sign of owner, Amount exceeds Rs.1 lakh mention the Owner's PAN number in the rent receipt
Interest on Home Loan	Income from House property	Provisional Certificate for the corresponding year mentioning the Interest & Principal amount
80C/80CCC/80CCD(1)	Principal Home Loan Repayment	Receipt issued by the Sub registrar's office along with the Sale deed. Property Completion certificate of the property or any address proof
	Life Insurance Premium	Receipt for Insurance Premium paid during the current financial year.
	Tax Savings Deposits	Copy of the Deposit receipts for the investment done during the current financial year
	ELSS Mutual Fund	you can then submit this account statement for claiming 80C deduction.
	Stamp Duty / Registration Fees for House property	Receipt issued by the Sub registrar's office along with the Sale deed. Property Completion certificate of the property.
	Unit Linked Insurance Plan (ULIP)	Copy of the Investment certificate/receipt for the current financial year. Policy documents or statements should specify that it falls under ULIP. It has to be in the name of the associate, spouse or children.
	Pension Fund	Certificate evidencing payments to pension funds and their eligibility for a deduction under this section during the current financial year. It should be in the name of the associate.
	Contribution to National Savings Certificate or National Savings Scheme (NSC/NSS)	A certificate issued under the NSC VIII issue / NSS scheme in the current financial year has to be attached. If this is a joint investment then the first name should be of the associate. Payment proof should be established by the associate.
80CCD(1B)	National Pension Scheme	Deposit Certificate of NPS Tier 1 Premium Payment Receipt
80D	Health Insurance Premium	Copy of Health Insurance Policy (showing name of family members, their age and relation). 80 D Certificate from the Insurance company (If premium paid on parents health cover)
80DDB	Taxpayer or dependent specified ailments	certificate to claim deduction under Section 80DDB, proof that the treatment has been undertaken
80E	Interest on Higher educational loan	The sanction documents of the loan. The repayment statements from the financial institution or charitable institution. Such statements should have a clear bifurcation of the principal and interest amount repaid.
80EEB	Interest on buying Electric vehicle	Interest paid certificate and keep the necessary documents such as tax invoice and loan documents handy at the time of filing of the return.
80G	Donations	For donations made towards funds with 100% exemptions, individuals must submit Form 58 as received from the organisation. The receipt should contain the organisation's 80G registration number. While all receipts from registered organisations must have the number printed, individuals must request it specifically in case they cannot locate it on the receipt. Duly Stamped Receipt: It is mandatory to have a receipt issued by the trust/charity which receives a donation. This receipt should include details like the name, address and PAN number of the trust, amount donated and the name of donor.
80U	Deduction for Disabled individuals	Disability certificate signed by a recognized medical authority and submitted in Form 10-IA.